

“CREATING A CULTURE OF PREPAREDNESS”

A Workshop on Disaster Preparedness for Congregations and Their Leaders

Sponsored by the San Francisco Interfaith Council

And the Faiths Initiative of the San Francisco Foundation

MAY 9, 2008

St. Mary’s Cathedral, San Francisco

- 8:15 a.m. Registration, Coffee, Networking
- 8:40 a.m. Call to order, Seating in clusters by neighborhood
- 8:45 a.m. “Creating A Culture of Preparedness”
Rev. James DeLange, Chair
San Francisco Interfaith Council
Tessa Rouverol Callejo, Coordinator, FAITHS program, SF Foundation
Andrea Zussman, Coordinator, Disaster Preparedness Project, The San Francisco Foundation
- 9:00 a.m. “What a 1906 Earthquake Would Look Like Today”
Rich Eisner, The Fritz Institute
- 9:25 a.m. “What is Being Done to Create A Culture of Preparedness in Congregations in San Francisco”
Panel Presentation: Alessa Adamo SFCARD, Moderator
Rev. Donald Ng, First.Chinese Baptist Church, Chinatown
Rev. Charles Kullmann, Old St. Mary’s Catholic Church, Chinatown
Rabbi Peretz Wolf-Prusan, Congregation Emanu-EL, The Richmond
- 9:50 a.m. BREAK
- 10:05 a.m. “Clustering for Preparedness in Your Neighborhood”
A Tabletop Exercise: Jim Turner, The Fritz Institute
- Identify the Self-Support model, both internal and external.
 - Internal – staffing, volunteers
 - External – Collaborations, clustering
 - Appointment of Cluster leaders in each neighborhood
- 10:55 a.m. Feedback
- 11:10 a.m. Resources Available from your Community Partners.
Panel Presentation: Amy Ramirez, SF Department of Emergency Management, Moderator
Rob Dudgeon, Deputy Director, SF Dept. of Emergency Management
Erica Arteseros, SF Fire Department, NERT Coordinator
Brennan Banks, American Red Cross Bay Area Chapter
- 11:30 a.m. Questions, Next Steps and Follow-up
- 12:00 Noon. Adjourn